PRIVACY STATEMENT

Computerised research and your privacy

Study Geelong is committed to protecting your personal information and respecting your privacy. Only authorised staff has access to personal information and they are obliged to respect its confidentiality. We do not sell, rent or exchange any personal information supplied by you to any third party. Nor do we use any of the information you provide for direct marketing or other non-research activities.

What we do with the information that we gather from survey responses

All of the information that you provide will be treated as confidential and will only be used for research purposes. Your comments will not be identified as belonging to you, instead they will be combined with those gathered from other survey participants, and will be analysed as part of a group.

If we ask you for personal information that enables you to be identified - e.g. your name, e-mail address or telephone number, we will clearly state why we are asking for it and for your permission to use it for that purpose. For example, it might be to inform the winner of a prize draw.
